

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S OUTING
MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER HELD

Eldora Park Was Crowded Throughout Day with Children and Parents.

INTERESTING CONTESTS

Various Races by Boys and Girls During the Afternoon—The Spelling Contest.

The school children's picnic and outing at Eldora Park yesterday was the most successful outing that has ever been held for them, the crowd being larger, and the system in conducting the various events being more perfect, owing to the past experience. The children, from the time of the early arrival at the park, made merry with games and the park amusements. The various committees attended to their duties well, and as far as can be learned there was not a single hitch carrying out the program as planned.

During the afternoon, many of the children were exceptionally good. In the spelling contest, conducted by Miss Campbell, Leslie Dainty was the winner. He is an eighth grade student and the prize is a gold medal. The list of the various races follows:

- 1-300 yard dash, boys below 7th grade, Austin Stahlman, 1st; Thomas Bates, 2nd.

At a meeting of the Monongahela Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening a committee recommended that a bond issue of $50,000 be floated for the purpose of paving certain streets, erecting a garbage furnace, and purchasing the old school building in the second ward for a city hall. A committee was also appointed to get information toward securing a new State Armory for the National Guard company located in Monongahela.

CHARLEROI VICTORIOUS

CHERUBS HITS BALL HARD

Feature Contest by Heavy Battering at Expense of Silcox and Cotter.

The Connellsville team made its first appearance in Charleroi yesterday and was treated to a beating by the Charleroi bunch, the score being, when the smoke of battle settled away, 7 to 3. The victory was due to the hard hitting of the Cherub bunch. Nally and Smith were the headliners in the star batting act, each getting three hits. Charleroi started things in the second inning. Smith pulled off his triple and then scored on a passed ball by Frayley. Nally proceeded to nearly knock the cover off the horsehide in the third and when it stepped going it was somewhere beyond reach of the outfielders and he covered the entire circuit. Elliott was hit by the pitcher, was sacrificed to second, and scored when Harrell hit safely.

Connellsville scored one in the fourth when Calhoun was safe on a fielder's choice, was sent to second on C. Francis' out and finishing the circuit on Tiffany's hit.

Charleroi did not score again until the sixth inning, when that faithful fellow again pushed the ball for three bases, and trotted in when Myers made an error in the handling of Raley's bouncer. Raley was sacrificed to second, and Humphries singled, scoring him. Nally was hit by a pitched ball, advancing Humphries to second. Elliott singled and scored. Humphries, another run in the eighth helped along. Kennedy singled and trotted another base on Nally's out at the plate, scoring on Conway's single.

Connellsville had a batting rally in the ninth, and two runs were the result. Calhoun hit safely, as did C. Francis. Tiffany advanced them each a base, when he was hit by the pitcher. Sweeney scored them by a single. The score:

MAKING ARRANGEMENTS TO OBSERVE DECORATION DAY

Doleful Noises From Many Dog Prisoners

Canines Voice Their Disapproval of Being "Arrested"—Experienced Dog Catcher to Come.

There have been more than 15 dogs "arrested" for being found on the streets without a muzzle, by the dog catching firm of Keeshine and Ward. The lockup at present is well filled with these canine prisoners, who make the air ring with doleful dog noises, asking in their language to be freed. It is thought that contracts will be signed up with Tom Payne, an experienced dog catcher, by Monongahela, Monessen, Donora and Charleroi, allowing him the privilege of conducting the "dog business" in all these towns.

An Inspiring Sight.

One of the most striking as well as inspiring sights was the array of school children when they were lined up on the street yesterday awaiting transportation to the picnic at Eldora Park. Marshalled by their teacher in their grades, all of them tidy in appearance and neatly clad, the spectacle of so many children of the same age and size assembled at one time is not often witnessed. It was then that the magnitude and importance of our public schools could be realized.

The ease, the facility and the gentleness with which the teachers handled their charges, particularly those of the smaller grades, speaks volumes for the school management, and is besides a tribute to the high standing and efficiency of our instructors. The school board showed its wisdom when it left the children in charge of the teachers in getting to and from the park and giving them supervision for the day, the same to a certain degree as at school. By so doing there was better order, less confusion and the children themselves received better care. As a demonstration of executive ability the picnic was worth the effort, if for nothing else. Another beneficial feature was the gathering of parents and patrons, who were thus enabled to meet the teachers and see for themselves the good work that is being done in managing the schools and in handling the children.

Effort Brings Results.

Monongahela's Chamber of Commerce is setting a pace that will advance that town very materially in its standing among the municipalities of this section. The organization, which is composed of leading business and professional people of the town, is advocating a $50,000 bond issue for various public improvements, which call for more paving, a garbage furnace, and a city hall. They are also working to secure a State Armory, which would add considerably to the prestige and standing of the town.

Many towns are afraid of bond issues for public improvements, where the latter are not absolutely necessary. Monongahela is better paved than most towns of its size. It could no doubt get along in the future as in the past without a city hall or a garbage furnace. These things, however, are essential to progressive towns, and the Chamber of Commerce in expressing the sentiment of its leading citizens clearly shows that the people there are not afraid of a little extra taxation when all the public is benefited alike.

Should be Protected.

Accompanied by Congressmen J. K. Tener, Burke, Huff, Langham and Barclay of Pennsylvania, a delegation of plate glass manufacturers visited President Taft at the White House yesterday. The plate glass men are in Washington in the interests of their product in the new tariff bill, and the call was made on the President to acquaint him with the situation and enlist his sympathetic interest.

What the plate glass manufacturers desire is more duty on the small sizes. When the industry was first started in the United States, there was practically no demand for it except the large sizes, on which the protective duty was based in previous tariff bills. As many of the large sizes are broken or have to be cut down on account of flaws in the process of manufacture, a large trade has been worked up for the small sizes. There is very little duty on these sizes, and consequently the importers undersell the manufacturers here.

Unless the small glass can be sold profitably there is little profit in the big sizes. This is what the manufacturers want, an evening up duty. The industry is an important one, as all in the community well know, and if it is crippled the wages fund of Charleroi will be very materially reduced.

Electric Sparks

Marathon runners will again occupy the attention of the good people of Charleroi.

Dog catchers will doubtless soon be prevalent in Charleroi. Just so they rid the town of some of the too numerous curs is all that is desired.

Playerless pianos would just about strike some people who have to undergo the suffering incident to the hearing of the practice of some one's else daughter.

A murderer who jests at death should be given a chance to live, on the plea of insanity, and let the ones who get out of the severest of penalties under the unwritten law suffer accordingly.

A newspaper along the valley states that in a recent affair a negro played the villain, a white man the leading role and a bull dog the star. Now what we want to know is the difference between the leading man and the star?

WOMEN OF NOTE.

Mrs. T. P. O'Connor's visit to this country is in the interest of Irish industries.

Mrs. Taft's name heads the roll of honorary members of the Daughters of Ohio. She was elected at a recent meeting of the society which was held in New York.

Miss Catharine Regina Seabury, for some years the head of St. Agnes' school at Albany, is spoken of as the successor of Miss Agnes Irwin as dean of Radcliffe college.

Queen Wilhelmina, who has recently become a convert to perfumes, prefers the soft, uncertain French odors, and she uses them in a French way. She scents each article of clothing strongly, but with a different odor.

Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, instructor in the department of chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is to give a course of lectures at the University of California the coming summer on "Household Economics."

Mrs. Mary Nevins Bull, widow of Dr. William T. Bull, has presented to the New York Academy of Medicine a bronze bust of her husband, which was Dr. Bull's last gift to her before he died. She gives it to the academy in his son's name.

Little Miss Emily Boynton of Colorado, who is only thirteen years old, has a record as a mountain climber. She recently ascended Long's peak, commonly called the American Matterhorn, which is 14,271 feet high, scoring the aid of a guide, even at the dangerous points. The feat would be difficult for a man.

Countess von Boos Farrar, a niece of Archbishop Farrar, is giving her whole time to New York's sick and needy. She has lately secured seventy-five acres at Spring Valley, N. Y., and will build there a home for children of criminals, not only to care for the waifs, but to make a thorough test of the theory of inherited crime. Criminologists are said to be much interested in the results of the venture.

Sutherland For Recorder

J. C. SUTHERLAND

J. C. SUTHERLAND, familiarly known throughout the county at large as "Chester" Sutherland, a Republican candidate for Recorder of Washington county, was born and reared in West Finley township, this county, and from a "lad on the farm" he has risen by hard and honorable work into the esteem and respect of the masses to whom he appeals for votes.

A son of James Sutherland, whose family lineage runs back into pre-revolutionary times, and whose family service for the Republican party speaks for itself. The latter day representative of the Sutherland family is the first to seek an elective office at the hands of the Republican party. He goes before the people on his own record. He has been an active, progressive and honest worker for the public good. His record is one of which any citizen could feel proud. His ambition and determination is, it is nominated and elected, to work for the People's interests.

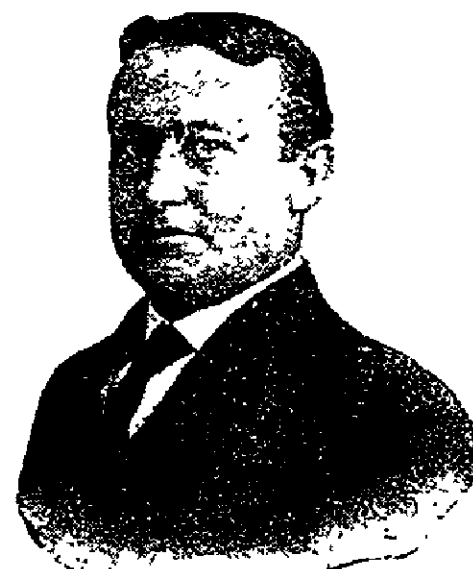

After securing the rudiments of an education in the public schools of his home township he graduated from Jefferson academy at Canonsburg. After devoting six years to teaching in the public schools of Washington county and spending some time as an instructor in Mercer academy, where he secured a bookkeeping and commercial education, he launched into the business world where he has been kept busy wrestling with the every-day problems of professional life. His wide and varied experience in real estate and mortgages with kindred subjects ably qualifies him to fill the important office of Recorder.

Mr. Sutherland is making a personal canvass of the county and as he is a man of pleasing personal characteristics, he is meeting with a host of friends everywhere. He possesses marked ability, is most amiable and courteous, and in the true sense of the word he is one of the people. He has his interest and welfare at heart. He is an able, energetic, honest and generous man and fully equipped to perform the arduous duties of Recorder in the interests of the taxpaying public.

"Chester" Sutherland stands before the mass of Republican voters of Washington county without a single pledge, except that he will endeavor to administer their affairs in a way that will reflect credit to himself and to the county at large. He is a candidate because he has faith in the independence, intelligence and integrity of 15,000 registered Republican voters of Washington county. He is carrying his fight direct to the people, the sovereign power of any community. He is not the creature of any boss, faction, clique or the part of any machine. He stands unqualifiedly for the people. The people want to choose their own Recorder by the popular voice and that is why on Saturday, June 5, they

Will Nominate J. C. Sutherland for Recorder of Washington County.

FOR RECORDER

JOHN H. MOFFITT
CHARLEROI, PA.

IN ANNOUNCING my candidacy for the nomination of County Recorder, I do so by stating that I have never been favored, either with an elective or an appointed position in this county, and I have never given support, nor encouragement in any campaign to any other than candidates of the Republican Party, from whose hosts I am now seeking the honorable position above named. I have long been a resident of the Monongahela Valley, and for more than one hundred and twenty years my ancestors have been taxpayers and residents of that section of the county.

While no new issues or questions are likely to be advanced in the coming campaign other than fitness and capability of the applicants, I wish to say that I stand as I have always done, for the broad principles of Republicanism and will always be ready to champion every policy of reform involving a higher standard of politics.

On one or two occasions I have permitted my name to be withdrawn from political contests for the sake of the party harmony, but after being active in aiding others for almost a score of years in reaching the goal of their ambitions, I am now presenting myself for the first time as a candidate for the office of County Recorder, for which primaries will be held June 5th, 1909.

No Other Candidate for Recorder So Well Equipped as Alex. D. Young

ALEX. D. YOUNG

Alex. D. Young, candidate for the Republican nomination for Recorder of Washington county, is too well known to need formal introduction. His long service in the Recorder's office as deputy has brought him into close touch with the public and the uniformly courteous treatment accorded patrons of the office during his term of service has made him many substantial friends who are eager to rally to his support in the contest to be settled at the June primaries.

In point of qualifications no other candidate is so well equipped. Not another man in Washington county so well understands how to conduct the business of the office and there is no more deserving candidate. While at no time in his career has Mr. Young been identified with factional politics, he has at all times since attaining his majority been a strict adherent to the principles of the party of his choice.

On his record as deputy recorder, established by many years of faithful service and on his record for party regularity Mr. Young solicits the support of Washington county Republicans.

KNOWING'S "SORDELLO."

The Critics Had Lots of Fun With the Famous Poem.

When Robert Browning was twenty-eight years old and after he had written "Paracelsus" and his tragedy of "Strafford," he wrote "Sordello," about which there has always been such a variety of opinion. Dante in his "Purgatory" wrote of Sordello, who was a poet of Provence.

"When 'Sordello' appeared it made a sensation. Punch said it had offered £100 to any person who would reasonably explain one single line and that after a year no one had claimed this reward. Barthesque were written on it, and in one of these it was claimed that the funniest lines were some of the exact original ones.

A story is told of witty Douglas Jerrold, who met a friend one day and asked, "Have you read 'Sordello'?" Does it mean anything?

The friend replied that it meant nothing whatever. "Thank heaven!" said Jerrold. "Then I am not mad! I read it yesterday and feared I had lost my wits. It is only Browning who has lost his."

Another story was that criminals at Newgate prison who were condemned to death were offered full pardon if they would listen to the reading of "Sordello," but in every instance they hastened with glee to the gallows. Browning once said that he blamed nobody but himself for the work and that it had many faults of expression; that he meant to lay stress on incidents in the development of a soul and that little else is worth study. This estimate of his work was given twenty-five years after it was written, when he had revised it and dedicated it to a friend. He rewrote very little of it, and his followers have a belief that he considered "Sordello" his best literary work. It certainly has many beautiful lines, and in particular there is a word picture as striking as anything in our language:

That autumn eve was stilled.
A last remains of sunset dimly burned
O'er the far forests like a torch flame turned
By the wind back upon the bearer's hand
In one long flame of crimson; as a brand
The woods beneath lay black.

—Boston Globe.

WHEN WOMEN REGISTER.

A Hotel Clerk Explains Why a Blotter Is Necessary.

"Hotel clerks get to be great observers of human nature," said an old hotel "lobbyist." "During the many hours out of each day that I spend warming this chair I have learned many tricks of their trade which go to prove my statement.

"In fact, this clerk here has a peculiar trick of his own which shows how keen an observer he is. If you watch him at work you will find whenever a woman is registering he holds a blotter so as to hide the other names on the page. At first when I noticed it I thought that he was merely holding the blotter in readiness to use it on the newly written name, but when I found that he did it only when a woman was registering my curiosity got the better of me, and I asked the reason.

"Why," said he, "women are the most nervous creatures in the world. I hold that blotter up to show that I am not watching them write their names and at the same time to keep them from trying to excel the other handwritings on the page. If they noticed that I was watching them closely it is a safe bet that they would get nervous and make an awful botch of their signatures trying to be fancy. On the other hand, if they saw a particularly pretty signature on the next line the chances are that they would try to improve theirs with a flourish or two, which generally means a choice blot to be scratched out by yours truly."

"I decided to test his theory by looking over a woman's shoulder while she registered. The result was just what he said it would be."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

He Came Back Hard.

"That boy," said the Billville farmer, "beats my time! Jest now when I quoted Scripture to him he come back at me hard."

"You don't say!"

"Shore! I told him to git a hoe an' follow the furrow. 'Thar's gold in the land,' I said. An' what do you reckon he made answer?"

"You tell it."

"'Father,' he says, 'I don't keer fer the gold o' this here world. I've laid up treasure in heaven!'"—Atlanta Constitution.

THE SMALLEST LOAF.

Story of a Generous Baker and a Modest Little Girl.

There once lived an old baker who was very fond of children. Often he would play pleasant surprises for them. One day he invited a large number of girls and boys to come to his bakery shop. To each child as he walked down the street the old baker said, "Well, my child, can you come to my bakery at 4 o'clock?"

At 4 o'clock a large crowd had gathered. The children felt sure he had some pleasant surprise for them. They were not disappointed, for there was a large basket filled with nice, fresh loaves of bread. How the children pushed and scrambled for them!

Among the crowd was a little girl. She was so small that she did not wish to scramble into the crowd, but stood quietly aside. After the children had each snatched a loaf and run gleefully away she stepped up to the basket and took the first loaf. It was very small.

She thanked the baker and ran home with it. When she cut it out fell a brand new gold piece. Thinking there had been a mistake, she ran back to tell the baker.

"No," said the baker, "there is no mistake. I put it into the smallest loaf. It is yours."

To be "blind as a bat" is not to be very blind, after all. It can have its eyes removed and "see" to fly as well as before. It can dodge around a corner and avoid all obstacles in its flight. It guides itself by some sixth sense that warns it of obstructions.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S OUTING
MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER HELD

Eldora Park Was Crowded Throughout Day with Children and Parents.

INTERESTING CONTESTS

Various Races by Boys and Girls During the Afternoon—The Spelling Contest.

The school children's picnic and outing at Eldora Park yesterday was the most successful outing that has ever been held for them, the crowd being larger, and the system in conducting the various events being more perfect, owing to the past experience. The children, from the time of the early arrival at the park, made merry with games and the park amusements. The various committees attended to their duties well, and as far as can be learned there was not a single hitch carrying out the program as planned.

At all times, the pavilion being well filled, the evening there was a large number of people. Many of the children were interested in the spelling contest, conducted by Miss Campbell. Leslie Dainty was the winner. He is an eighth grade boy and the prize is a gold medal. The list of the various races follows: 1-100 yard dash, boys below 7th grade. ## CHARLEROI VICTORIOUS

Cokers Beaten in their First Contest on the Local Lot.

CHERUBS HITS BALL HARD

Feature Contest by Heavy Batting at Expense of Silcox and Cotter.

The Connellsville team made its first appearance in Charleroi yesterday and was treated to a beating by the Charleroi bunch, the score being, when the smoke of battle rolled away, 7 to 3. The victory was due to the hard hitting of the Cherub bunch. Nally and Smith were the headliners in the star batting act, each getting three hits. Charleroi started things in the second inning. Smith pulled off his tripple and then scored on a passed ball by Frayley. Nally proceeded to nearly knock the cover off the horsehide in the third and when it swopped going it was somewhere beyond reach of the outfielders and he covered the entire circuit. Elliott was hit by the pitcher, was sacrificed to second, and scored when Harrell hit safely.

Connellsville scored one in the fourth when Calhoun was safe on a fielder's choice, was sent to second on C. Francis' out and finishing the circuit on Tiffany's hit.

Charleroi did not score again until the sixth inning, when that Smith fellow again pushed the ball for three bases, and trotted in when Myers made an error in the handling of Raley's bouncer. Raley was sacrificed to second, and Humphries singled, scoring him. Nally was hit by a pitched ball advancing Humphries to second. Elliott singled and scored. Humphries. Another run in the eighth inning along. Kennedy singled and trotted another base on Nally's out at the plate, scoring on Conway's single.

Connellsville had a batting rally in the ninth, and two runs were the result. Calhoun hit safely, as did C. Francis. Tiffany advanced them each a base, when he was hit by the pitcher. Sweeney scored them by a single. The score:

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Charleroi Elks Commemorate Lodge Birthday at Meeting Last Night.

VISITORS ARE PRESENT

Ex-Mayor Falkenstein of McKeesport, Organizer of 494, the Honor Guest.

Charleroi Lodge, No. 494 B. P. O. E., celebrated the tenth anniversary of its institution at the club house last night. About 125 members and visitors were present, including ex-District Deputy Geo. G. F. Falkenstein of McKeesport, who claims to be father of the Charleroi Lodge, for the reason that he was district deputy at the time and instituted the lodge in 1899. District Deputy H. W. Ochs of Aetna and R. W. Gibson of McKeesport were also present, as well as visitors from Monongahela, Monessen and elsewhere.

After the regular session a lunch was served in the dining hall. When cigars were reached Exalted Ruler Roland W. Brown officiated as toastmaster and addresses were made by Geo. J. F. Falkenstein, H. W. Ochs, R. W. Gibson and other visitors. Letters of regret were read from several prominent Elks, including ex-Grand Exalted Ruler John K. Tener, who had expected to be present, but was unable to leave his Congressional duties at Washington. Mr. Tener also sent the following toast by telegraph, which was read at 11 o'clock:

"Roland W. Brown, Exalted Ruler, Charleroi: I toast you at 11, my lodge, the best lodge of the best fraternity of the best country in the world."

John K. Tener.

Paul R. Natt, who secured the list of charter members, told of the organization of the lodge; Hugh E. Fergus, Esq., talked on "Impression of a New Member;" J. E. Master spoke on "The Lodge of Today," while J. W. McKean spoke of "Charleroi Lodge in Grand Lodge Affairs."

MAKING ARRANGEMENTS TO OBSERVE DECORATION DAY

Doleful Noises From Many Dog Prisoners

Canines Voice Their Disapproval of Being "Arrested"—Experienced Dog Catcher to Come.

There have been more than a dozen "arrested" for being found on the streets without a muzzle, by the dog catching firm of Keeshine and Ward. The lockup at present is well filled with these canine prisoners, who make the air ring with doleful dog noises, asking in their language to be freed.

It is thought that contracts will be signed up with Tom Payne, an experienced dog catcher, by Monongahela, Monessen, Donora and Charleroi, allowing him the privilege of conducting the "dog business" in all these towns.

An Inspiring Sight.

One of the most striking as well as inspiring sights was the array of school children when they were lined up on the street yesterday awaiting transportation to the picnic at Eldora Park. Marshalled by their teacher in their grades, all of them tidy in appearance and neatly clad, the spectacle of so many children of the same age and size assembled at one time is not often witnessed. It was then that the magnitude and importance of our public schools could be realized.

The ease, the facility and the gentleness with which the teachers handled their charges, particularly those of the smaller grades, speaks volumes for the school management, and is besides a tribute to the high standing and efficiency of our instructors. The school board showed its wisdom when it left the children in charge of the teachers in getting to and from the park and giving them supervision for the day, the same to a certain degree as at school. By so doing there was better order, less confusion and the children themselves received better care. As a demonstration of executive ability the picnic was worth the effort, if for nothing else. Another beneficial feature was the gathering of parents and patrons, who were thus enabled to meet the teachers and see for themselves the good work that is being done in managing the schools and in handling the children.

Effort Brings Results.

Monongahela's Chamber of Commerce is setting a pace that will advance that town very materially in its standing among the municipalities of this section. The organization, which is composed of leading business and professional people of the town, is advocating a $50,000 bond issue for various public improvements, which call for more paving, a garbage furnace, a city hall. They are also working to secure a State Armory, which would add considerably to the prestige and standing of the town.

Many towns are afraid of bond issues for public improvements, where the latter are not absolutely necessary. Monongahela is better paved than most towns of its size. It could no doubt get along in the future as in the past without a city hall or a garbage furnace. These things, however, are essential to progressive towns, and the Chamber of Commerce in expressing the sentiment of its leading citizens clearly shows that the people there are not afraid of a little extra taxation when all the public is benefited alike.

Should be Protected.

Accompanied by Congressmen J. K. Tener, Burke, Huff, Langham and Barclay of Pennsylvania, a delegation of plate glass manufacturers visited President Taft at the White House yesterday. The plate glass men are in Washington in the interests of their product in the new tariff bill, and the call was made on the President to acquaint him with the situation and enlist his sympathetic interest.

What the plate glass manufacturers desire is more duty on the small sizes. When the industry was first started in the United States, there was practically no duty on it except on the large sizes, on which the protective duty was based in previous tariff bills. As many of the large sizes are broken or have to be cut down on account of flaws in the process of manufacture, a large trade has been worked up for the small sizes. There is very little duty on these sizes, and consequently the importers undersell the manufacturers here.

Unless the small glass can be sold profitably there is little profit in the big sizes. This is what the manufacturers want, an evening up duty. The industry is an important one, as all in the community well know, and if it is crippled the wages fund of Charleroi will be very materially reduced.

Electric Sparks

Marathon runners will again occupy the attention of the good people of Charleroi.

Dog catchers will doubtless soon be prevalent in Charleroi. Just so they rid the town of some of the too numerous curs is all that is desired.

Playerless pianos would just about strike some people who have to undergo the suffering incident to the hearing of the practice of some one's else daughter.

A murderer who jests at death should be given a chance to live, on the plea of insanity, and let the ones who get out of the severest of penalties under the unwritten law suffer accordingly.

A newspaper along the valley states that in a recent affair a negro played the villain, a white man the leading role and a bull dog the star. Now what we want to know is the difference between the leading man and the star?

WOMEN OF NOTE.

Mrs. T. P. O'Connor's visit to this country is in the interest of Irish industries.

Mrs. Taft's name heads the roll of honorary members of the Daughters of Ohio. She was elected at a recent meeting of the society which was held in New York.

Miss Catharine Regina Senbury, for some years the head of St. Agnes' school at Albany, is spoken of as the successor of Miss Agnes Irwin as dean of Radcliffe college.

Queen Wilhelmina, who has recently become a convert to perfumes, prefers the soft, uncertain French odors, and she uses them in a French way. She scents each article of clothing strongly, but with a different odor.

Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, instructor in the department of chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is to give a course of lectures at the University of California the coming summer on "Household Economics."

Mrs. Mary Nevins Bull, widow of Dr. William T. Bull, has presented to the New York Academy of Medicine a bronze bust of her husband, which was Dr. Bull's last gift to her before he died. She gives it to the academy in his son's name.

Little Miss Emily Boynton of Colorado, who is only thirteen years old, has a record as a mountain climber. She recently ascended Long's peak, commonly called the American Matterhorn, which is 14,271 feet high, scoring the aid of a guide, even at the dangerous points. The feat would be difficult for a man.

Countess von Boos Farrar, a niece of Archdeacon Farrar, is giving her whole time to New York's sick and needy. She has lately secured seventy-five acres at Spring Valley, N. Y., and will build there a home for children of criminals, not only to care for the waifs, but to make a thorough test of the theory of inherited crime. Criminologists are said to be much interested in the results of the venture.

Sutherland For Recorder

J. C. SUTHERLAND

J. C. SUTHERLAND, familiarly known throughout the county at large as "Chester" Sutherland, a Republican candidate for Recorder of Washington county, was born and reared in West Finley township, this county, and from a "lad on the farm" he has risen by hard and honorable work into the esteem and respect of the masses to whom he appeals for votes.

A son of James Sutherland, whose family lineage runs back into pre-revolutionary times, and whose family service for the Republican party speaks for itself. The latter day representative of the Sutherland family is the first to seek an elective office at the hands of the Republican party. He goes before the people on his own record. He has been an active, progressive and honest worker for the public good. His record is one of which any citizen could feel proud. His ambition and determination is, if nominated and elected, to work for the People's interests.

After securing the rudiments of an education in the public schools of his home township, he graduated from Jefferson academy at Canonsburg. After devoting six years to teaching in the public schools of Washington county and spending some time as an instructor in Mercer academy, where he secured a bookkeeping and commercial education, he launched into the business world where he has been kept busy wrestling with the every-day problems of professional life. His wide and varied experience in real estate and mortgages with kindred subjects ably qualifies him to fill the important office of Recorder.

Mr. Sutherland is making a personal canvass of the county and as he is a man of pleasing personal characteristics, he is meeting with a host of friends everywhere. He possesses marked ability, is most amiable and courteous, and in the true sense of the word he is one of the people. He has their interest and welfare at heart. He is an able, energetic, honest and generous man and fully equipped to perform the arduous duties of Recorder in the interests of the tax-paying public.

"Chester" Sutherland stands before the mass of Republican voters of Washington county without a single pledge, except that he will endeavor to administer their affairs in a way that will reflect credit to himself and to the county at large. He is a candidate because he has faith in the independence, intelligence and integrity of 15,000 registered Republican voters of Washington county. He is carrying his fight direct to the people, the sovereign power of any community. He is not the creature of any machine, faction, clique or the part of any machine. He stands unflinchingly for the people. The people want to choose their own Recorder by the popular voice and that is why on Saturday, June 5, they Will Noxinate J. C. Sutherland for Recorder of Washington County.

IN ANNOUNCING my candidacy for the nomination of County Recorder, I do so by stating that I have never been favored, either with an elective or an appointed position in this county, and I have never given support, nor encouragement in any campaign to any other than candidates of the Republican Party, from whose boss I am now seeking the honorable position above named. I have long been a resident of the Monongahela Valley, and for more than one hundred and twenty years my ancestors have been taxpayers and residents of that section of the county.

While no new issues or questions are likely to be advanced in the coming campaign other than fitness and capability of the applicants, I wish to say that I stand as I have always done, for the broad principles of Republicanism, and will always be ready to champion every policy of reform involving a higher standard of politics.

On one or two occasions I have permitted my name to be withdrawn from political contests for the sake of the party harmony, but after being active in aiding others for almost a score of years in reaching the goal of their ambitions, I am now presenting myself for the first time as a candidate for the office of County Recorder, for which primaries will be held June 5th, 1909.

No Other Candidate for Recorder So Well Equipped as Alex. D. Young

ALEX. D. YOUNG

Alex. D. Young, candidate for the Republican nomination for Recorder of Washington county, is too well known to need formal introduction. His long service in the Recorder's office as deputy has brought him into close touch with the public and the uniformly courteous treatment accorded patrons of the office during his term of service has made him many substantial friends who are eager to rally to his support in the contest to be settled at the June primaries.

In point of qualifications no other candidate is so well equipped. Not another man in Washington county so well understands how to conduct the business of the office and there is no more deserving candidate. While at no time in his career has Mr. Young been identified with factional politics, he has at all times since attaining his majority been a strict adherent to the principles of the party of his choice.

On his record as deputy recorder, established by many years of faithful service and on his record for party regularity Mr. Young solicits the support of Washington county Republicans.

BROWNING'S "SORDELLO"

The Critics Had Lots of Fun With the Famous Poem

When Robert Browning was twenty years old, he wrote a poem called "Sordello," about which there has always been such a variety of opinion. Dante in his "Purgatory" wrote of Sordello, who was a poet of Provence.

"When 'Sordello' appeared it made a sensation. Punch said it had offered $100 to any person who would reasonably explain one single line and that after a year no one had claimed this reward. Burlesques were written on it, and in one of these it was claimed that the funniest lines were some of the exact original ones.

A story is told of witty Douglas Jerrold, who met a friend one day and asked, "Have you read 'Sordello'?" Does it mean anything?"

The friend replied that it meant nothing whatever. "Thank heaven," said Jerrold. "Then I am not mad! I read it yesterday and feared I had lost my wits. It is only Browning who has lost his."

Another story was that criminals at Newgate prison who were condemned to death were offered full pardon if they would write to the governor a "Sordello," but in every instance they basted with glee to the gallows. Browning once said that he blamed nobody but himself for the work and that it had many faults of expression; that he meant to lay stress on incidents in the development of a soul and that little else is worth study. This estimate of his work was given twenty-five years after it was written, when he had revised it and dedicated it to a friend. He rewrote very little of it, and his followers have a belief that he considered "Sordello" his best literary work. It certainly has many beautiful lines, and in particular there is a word picture as striking as anything in our language:

A last remains of sunset dimly burned
O'er the far forests like a torch flame turned.
By the wind back upon the hearer's hand
in one long flame of crimson; as a brand
The woods beneath lay black.

—Boston Globe.

WHEN WOMEN REGISTER.

A Hotel Clerk Explains Why a Blotter Is Necessary.

"Hotel clerks get to be great observers of human nature," said an old hotel "lobbyist." "During the many hours out of each day that I spend warming this chair I have learned many tricks of their trade which go to prove my statement."

"In fact, this clerk here has a peculiar trick of his own which shows how keen an observer he is. If you watch him at work you will find whenever a woman is registering he holds a blotter so as to hide the other names on the page. At first when I noticed it I thought that he was merely holding the blotter in readiness to use it on the newly written name, but when I found that he did it only when a woman was registering my curiosity got the better of me, and I asked the reason."

"Why," said he, "women are the most nervous creatures in the world. I hold that blotter up to show that I am not watching them write their names and at the same time to keep them from trying to excel the other handwriting on the page. If they noticed that I was watching them closely it is a safe bet that they would be nervous and make an awful batch of their signatures trying to be fancy. On the other hand, if they saw a particularly pretty signature on the next line the chances are that they would try to improve theirs with a flourish or two, which generally means a choice blot to be scratched out by yours truly."

"I decided to test his theory by looking over a woman's shoulder while she registered. The result was just what he said it would be."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

He Came Back Hard.

"That boy," said the Ellipse farmer, "beats my time! Just now when I quoted Scripture to him he come back at me hard."

"You don't say?"
"Shore! I told him to git a hoe an' feller the furrow. 'That's gold in the land,' I said. An' what do you reckon he made answer?"

"You tell it!"
"Father," he says, "I don't keer fer the gold o' this here world. I've laid up treasure in heaven!"—Atlanta Constitution.

THE SMALLEST LOAF.

Story of a Generous Baker and a Modest Little Girl.

There once lived an old baker who was very fond of children. Often he would play pleasant surprises for them. One day he invited a large number of girls and boys to come to his bakery shop. To each child as he walked down the street the old baker said, "Well, my child, can you come to my bakery at 4 o'clock?"

At 4 o'clock a large crowd had gathered. The children felt sure he had some pleasant surprise for them. They were not disappointed, for there was a large basket filled with nice, fresh loaves of bread. How the children pushed and scrambled for them!

Among the crowd was a little girl. She was so small that she did not wish to scramble into the crowd, but stood quietly aside. After the children had each snatched a loaf and run gleefully away she stepped up to the basket and took the first loaf. It was very small.

She thanked the baker and ran home with it. When she cut it out fell a brand new gold piece. Thinking there had been a mistake, she ran back to tell the baker.

"No," said the baker, "there is no mistake. I put it into the smallest loaf. It is yours."

To be "blind as a bat" is not to be very blind, after all. It can have its eyes removed and "see" as well as before. It can dodge around a corner and avoid all obstacles in its flight. It guides itself by some sixth sense that warns it of obstructions.
